JUNE 13TH-14TH 2018
C5 SUMMER INSTITUTE 2018
Creating Effective Learning Environments for Students With Significant Social-Emotional-Behavioral Needs
WWW.CLSTEAM.NET/REGISTRATION

Students with significant social-behavioral-emotional needs are one of the most challenging groups within the school setting. Designing effective classroom learning environments that support the diverse needs of this population is equally challenging.

The CLS C5 Summer Institute is a 2-day workshop designed to help teams effectively and efficiently support students with social-emotional-behavioral needs, especially those in self-contained classroom settings. Using experiential activities and collaborative action-planning, workshop participants will explore topics including:

- Effective T1 strategies for the EBD classroom
- Specific instructional strategies to build social-emotional competencies
- Specific relationship building techniques
- Self-care plans to combat the impact of secondary trauma and support adult wellness

INTENDED AUDIENCE: School Tier 3 teams, EBD Classroom teams, School administration, School Mental Health Teams, Special Educators and Administrators
